- This album presents 34 of his most rocking songs from 1958 to 1962, including Move It!, High Class Baby, Dynamite, Choppin' 'n' Changin', and Livin' Lovin' Doll, as well as numerous cover versions of popular U.S. rock 'n' roll hits.

- Carefully remastered recordings from the best possible sources by one of the greats of pop history!

Before the Fab Four released their recipe for mania in 1963, Britain's top selling beat group was unquestionably Cliff Richard and The Shadows. Starting out as The Drifters, the group pushed Cliff into the spotlight and opened their recording account with Move It! - one of the best and most important British pop records of the 20th century. By the time the group released their follow-up single High Class Baby, Cliff had been voted the best newcomer in a readers pop poll and the New Musical Express was soon railing against "The most crude exhibitionism ever seen on British TV" and asking "Is Cliff too sexy?".

Before the following year was out, Cliff had toned down his 45 releases with Living Doll and Travellin' Light but he still found time along the way to detonate a few explosive tracks and it is those up-tempo numbers such as Dynamite and Choppin' 'n' Changin' that feature on the latest CD in Bear Family's 'The Brits Are Rocking' series.

There are no Summer Holidays, no Bachelor Boys, no Mistletoe and Wine and definitely no Living Dolls. Well, there is a Livin' Lovin' Doll but don't panic, she's mean and nasty and bopping at the hop. Let's face it, Cliff, Hank, Bruce, Jet and Tony should have been in the 'Rock 'n' Roll Hall Of Fame' decades ago. Here's the proof....
